

FFF Enterprises Takes Top Honors in 2012 MarCom Awards Competition

PRESS RELEASE | November 13, 2012

Temecula, Calif.

FFF Enterprises, Inc., the nation's largest and most trusted distributor of plasma products, vaccines and critical-care biopharmaceuticals and publisher of two magazines, is pleased to announce that it has received a platinum award, two gold awards and one honorable mention in the 2012 MarCom International Awards Competition.

BioSupply Trends Quarterly (BSTQ), a leading source of marketplace news and trends within the biopharmaceutical industry, won a platinum award for its special edition The State of the Biologics Marketplace. The magazine also garnered gold awards for its feature article, The Growing Threat of Counterfeit Drugs, and for its January 2012 magazine cover design. IG Living, the only magazine dedicated to patients who use immune globulin products and their healthcare providers, received an honorable mention for the interior design of its August/September 2011 issue. FFF is no stranger to marketing and publishing awards; for the past two years, both of its magazines have taken top awards in the MarCom competition.

"We are honored to be acknowledged for our publishing and marketing efforts," says Patrick M. Schmidt, chief executive officer, FFF Enterprises, Inc. "All of our communications and print materials are designed to support our mission of Helping Healthcare Care. It is rewarding to have our work recognized for both its content and design, especially by such a prestigious competition as the MarCom Awards."

MarCom is an international organization consisting of several thousand creative professionals. The association oversees awards and recognition programs, provides judges and sets standards for excellence. The annual MarCom Awards recognize outstanding creative achievement by marketing and communication professionals. FFF was distinguished among nearly 5,000 entries from throughout the United States, Canada and several other countries. Winners were selected from more than 200 categories in seven forms of media and communication efforts: marketing, publications, marketing/promotion, public service/pro bono, creativity and electronic/interactive. About 15 percent of the entries won the platinum award, the organization's top honor.
